COMMUNITY FACILITIES PROGRAM

Have an idea for a great way to improve your public library but lack the funds to do it? USDA Rural Development State Director Maxine Moul is pleased to announce that funds are available for renovations and upgrades!

The Secretary of Agriculture, Tom Vilsack has set a goal of investing $100 million of USDA's Community Facilities American Recovery and Reinvestment Act funds for public libraries.

So get your creative juices flowing for project ideas and let Rural Development help you make those ideas a reality. Current interest rate through March 31, 2010 is only 4.00 percent! Grant funding may also be available.
