J. I. WYER JR., PRESIDENT
E. BENJ. ANDREWS,
CHANCELLOR OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA
W. K. FOWLER,
STATE SUPT. OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION
LEE HERDMAN,
STATE LIBRARIAN
F. L. HALLER,
OMAHA PUBLIC LIBRARY
EDNA D. BULLOCK, SECRETARY

LINCOLN

6 My. 1903.

All books loaned for study should be promptly returned at the end of the club year, or sooner, if they are no longer needed.

Next year, if your club desires to secure books from this office, send in your study program with a statement of what is desired, and we will endeavor to meet all reasonable demands, up to the limit of our resources. The greatest demand this year has been for English and American history and literature. We have a good many books in those subjects that will be available next year. Inquiries have come in regarding art portfolios. We have none, at present, and it is doubtful if our funds will permit of the purchase of any for some time to come.

It is hoped that the subject of children's reading will be considered in many of the clubs next year. We will gladly supply any printed matter that is available--and the Secretary will devote as much time as may be required to discussion of the subject at club meetings, whenever her presence is requested.

We shall plan to be fairly well equipped to supply demands for books on child study, domestic science and home topics. Such equipment as we have and such services as we may be able to render, are at all times at the service of the clubs.

Sincerely,

Edna D. Bullock, Sec'y.
